

Graham Allen

Eng Tech, MIET, MIRSE

Director

A railway systems specialist with over 35 years experience in Main Line Railway and Mass Rapid Transit project construction and systems engineering management. Based in SE Asia for 23 years Graham has held engineering and project management positions for major railway authorities. He has experience in all project life-cycle disciplines including tender preparation, evaluation, negotiation, contract management, claims evaluation and resolution and contract close-out issues.

