

Huw Probert

BEng CEng MICE MCIWEM FHKIE

Director

A Civil Engineer with over 38 years experience in planning, design and construction of multidisciplinary projects including major commercial, residential and recreational developments, Hong Kong Airport and a number of railway depots. Huw has held senior positions in client and consultant organisations involved in master planning, design, contract strategies, documentation, tender evaluation, utilities coordination and contract management.

