

Introduction

AIM Group Experts and Professionals provide valuable expert input at all stages of a project, from the earliest concepts through design development and construction contract management to successful project completion. With our wealth of knowledge, we help to deliver cost-effective solutions throughout the life of a project.

With a flexible approach to projects, our services can be tailored to suit project needs from stand alone packages to long-term secondment into project teams.

Typical areas of our Expert Services include:

- High End Project Management
- Expert Advice at Project Start-up
- Engineering input to Feasibility Studies and Master Planning
- Expert Advice during Design Development
- Risk Analysis and Reviews
- Contract Documentation and Administration
- Project Commercial Management
- Project Planning and Management
- Delay Impact Analysis and Extension of Time Assessments
- Independent Audit and Due Diligence
- Claims Valuations
- Arbitration and Mediation Support Services
- Dispute Resolution
- Project Turnaround Services
- Expert Witness Services
- Forensic Engineering

By courtesy of TOWNLAND